

National Bank Contest: Rules and Regulations

Subject to applicable laws, these rules govern all aspects of the National Bank Contest organized by the Contemporary Art Galleries Association (AGAC) (the Organizer) as part of the Papier Contemporary Art Fair (the Event).

The Event takes place from November 25 to 28 at the Grand Quay in Montreal's Old Port and virtually on the fair's website at www.papiermontreal.com.

1. Participation rules

Audiences targeted by AGAC and National Bank are invited to participate in the Contest by entering a draw. The Contest is organized by AGAC and is hosted on Papier's website: www.papiermontreal.com/en/national-bank-contest/

How to enter the National Bank Contest :

To participate, a person must:

- Complete and submit the online form.
- A maximum of one entry per person will be accepted for the duration of the Contest.

2. Eligibility

To enter the Contest, participants must be 18 years of age or older on the date of entry and reside in Canada. Proof of age and address may be requested from the winner upon selection.

Employees of AGAC, its representatives and the freelancers it employs, as well as exhibitors of the fair are not eligible to participate.

3. Contest duration

The Contest begins on November 15, 2021, and ends on December 15, 2021, at 11:59 pm (Eastern Time).

4. Prize to be won

The winner will receive an artwork by artist Nicolas Grenier, No Horizon, which is part of the AGAC 2020 Collection and valued at $1,250.

5. Winner selection

The winner will be determined by a random drawn on December 20, 2021.

6. Winner announcement

The winner will be notified by phone or email on December 20, 2021, and must claim the prize within a maximum of three business days. If the prize is not claimed within this period, another winner will be drawn.
